To whom it may concern

This is the letter of recommendation for my former student, Ms. Prarthana Sapkota for her admission to graduate studies at your esteemed university. During her Bachelor's Degree at Universal Engineering and Science College, our institution had the privilege of having her as a student. As the principal, I am pleased to provide insights into her exceptional academic journey under our guidance.

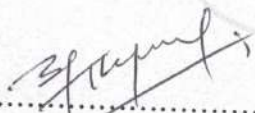

Prarthana consistently demonstrated outstanding performance in her field, always ranking within the top 3 throughout her entire four-year degree making her eligible for the scholarships. Her commitment to academic excellence was clear through her active participation in class, demonstrating sincerity and attentiveness. Her aptitude for solving complex calculations along with understanding of the diverse academic concepts of Engineering.

Beyond her academic achievements, Prarthana positively influenced our academic community. She cultivated warm relationships with both peers and faculty, contributing to a harmonious and collaborative learning environment.

In discussions related to her coursework and beyond, she exhibited perseverance and a strong ability to learn from experiences. This dedication resulted into a significant improvement in her grades, culminating in an impressive 4.0 GPA in her final semester making us proud.

I am confident that she will continue to excel and make extraordinary contributions to the field of Computer Science. I wholeheartedly recommend her without any hesitations for her further graduate education at your esteemed university.

With best regards,
